Website: www.thestandardcph.dk

Category: Modern Nordic cuisine

Cuisine: Danish/Nordic

Address: Havnegade 44

Almanak is one of the 3 restaurants of The Standard, located near the port of Nyhavn. The Standard is the new restaurant Claus Meyers, founder of the new Nordic cuisine and celebrated restaurant Noma. The restaurant is decorated by his wife Christina Meyer Bengtsson.

An almanak is traditionally an annual publication containing a list of days of the year, usually with information about the calendar and astronomical conditions. Transferred to the world of gastronomy, it is about being close to nature and eating according to the season.

BDP Comment: Very nice restaurant and delicious food

After lunch, discover Copenhagen by Bicycle

Location: Copenhagen City

Season/remark: All year

Capacity: 12 guests per guide

Duration: 2,5 hours

Copenhagen is now officially the first Bike City in the World. In 2013, it was voted the 'Best city for cyclists'. One of the best ways to learn and experience the atmosphere of Copenhagen city is to do it by bicycle – It really is a biking heaven with over 390 kilometers of designated bike lanes.

It is very easy to drive bicycles in Copenhagen – the streets are flat and the distances are short and further more you have bicycle lanes all over the city.

BDP Comment: Experience Copenhagen the Danish way

The tour ends at your hotel.

Dinner at Restaurant Vækst

Facts:

Capacity: 90 guests

Separate room: No

Website: www.cofoco.dk

Category: Informal

Cuisine: Nordic

Address: Sankt Peders Stræde 34, DK 1453 CPH K

Vækst is Cofoco's newest restaurant on Sankt Peders Stræde. Vækst uses fresh, Nordic vegetables as its starting point, but it is also possible to enjoy a good steak, shellfish or whole-fried fish. The heart of the restaurant is the greenhouse and the countless plants, which pull nature all the way into Vækst and right into the centre of old Copenhagen. The greenhouse is built up through the two floors of the restaurant and expresses both the light and green universe of the top floor, but also the urban and raw atmosphere of the basement.

BDP comment: Very good food for the money, due to a concept with two seatings per evening and set menu.

Or Dinner at Nørrebro Micro Brewery

Facts:

Capacity: 180 pax

Separate rooms: Yes

Website: www.noerrebrobryghus.dk

Category: Informal

Cuisine: Danish

Address: Ryesgade 3 Copenhagen N 2200

Many other cities in Europe have a tradition for microbreweries, and the idea is not new in Copenhagen either. But they cannot boast of such a large selection as Nørrebro Bryghus which produces up to ten different kinds of beer inspired by Dutch and English products. The restaurant has become enormously popular in a short time. The decoration is rather minimalist and modern with large graphic pictures giving colour to the bar along with bright red lamps that lighten it up. Nørrebro Bryghus is owned and run by former Carlsberg employee Anders Kissmeyer, who will probably give the Danish beer giants competition.

BDP comment: Informal atmosphere, good food & service . We can also include a visit of the brewery area and beer tasting upon arrival.

Danish for beginners!

Location: Copenhagen Season/remark:

Capacity: max. Duration: 2 h

Go game - duration 2 hours

Welcome to Danmark, the country with the happiest people in the world!

But what is it, that makes us so happy?

Is it biking no matter the weather conditions? Or that everybody has grown up with LEGOs? Does the consumption of Danish pastries and beer make us happier than others? Or are we simply living in a H.C. Andersen fairy tale?

Join this adventour – Danish for beginners – and get to know the most beautiful country of Scandinavia. The group will participate in a high-tech scavenger hunt through Copenhagen and explore the city equipped with a smart phone/tablet. During the tour, the groups will face various challenges in forms of puzzles, trivia, interteam challenges and missions, such as interaction with locals (are they really all tall and blond vikings?), tasting of local food (what else to eat than Danish pastries and Hotdogs?), learn about the Danish culture (are Danes born with their bicycles?), the country (why are there flags everywhere?), their language (what is “hygge” and how is it possible to pronounce “rødgrød med fløde”?)

Let's go on a Danish adventure!

It is possible to customize the tour and align it with the client's values and ideas. After the tour, a presentation of the videos and pictures can take place.

Nordic Noir Mystery Tour, 3 hours

Location: Copenhagen

Duration: 3 hours

Season/remark: summer/spring

Capacity: 500 persons

This activity is inspired by the popular Danish Television series: The Killing, Borgen and the Bridge. The whole group is divided into smaller teams that all are to solve tasks and help the detective Sarah Lund finding a murder – or murderer. The teams have to use their mobile phones on which they will receive information and clues of where to go. The teams will also meet actors with whom they have to exchange information. Furthermore there will be some key boxes along the route, where they have to break the code to open the box to find more information.

BDP Comment: A fun activity and different way of learning about Danish culture

After the activity, Lunch & Cruise on Øresund (duration 3 hours)

Enjoy a fantastic sailing cruise in the harbor and along the coast. The skipper welcomes you aboard and, while the ship slowly glides out of the harbor, he will relate the history of the ship and tell about the day's adventures.

Once the course is set, everybody will be invited to 'help set the schooner's mainsail – a real fun task to share with other passengers – and, as the breeze fills out the sails, it is a relaxing experience to enjoy the peace and quiet, as the schooner runs before the wind.

While relaxing on deck to the sounds of the sea enjoy some fruit and a soft drink or a beer or take it below and enjoy it in the ship's salon. When entering the harbor again, it is time to lower the mainsail before tying up at the quay.

Typical Danish lunch will be served on board.

The cruise ends in the city center of Copenhagen, the guests either walk to the hotel or drive in coaches.

Evening transfer to Tivoli Gardens by rickshaw

Rickshaw

A fun way to get around in Copenhagen! The rickshaws use the numerous bike-lanes in Copenhagen and not the streets, so it is a very safe way to explore the city. Have the rickshaw ride as a sightseeing tour or just as a way of transportation.

Kindly note that the drivers are not authorized guides and their main purpose is to wheel the party around, not to tell stories relating to the various monuments etc.

BDP Comment: A nice and relaxed transfer or city tour

Tivoli Gardens

Tivoli Gardens was founded in 1843 and has become a national treasure and an international attraction. Fairy tale writer Hans Christian Andersen visited many times, as did Walt Disney and many other celebrities, who all fell in love with the gardens. Part of Tivoli Gardens' secret is that there is something for everyone. The scenery is beautiful with exotic architecture, historic buildings and lush gardens. At night, thousands of coloured lights create a fairy tale atmosphere that is completely unique.

BDP Comment: Tivoli is not a tourist trap but also very popular for the Danes

Excursion to Malmö in Sweden, just across the bridge and 30 minutes away from Copenhagen airport.

The short orientation tour of Malmö also includes the old part of the city :

This tour is the perfect introduction to this charming international city. You will start by walking in the old part of town with Malmo's most charming square "Lilla Torg" (Small Square) that was built in 1592 as a market square. In the enclosed courtyard of Hedmanska Gården you will see the oldest half-timbered house from the 16th century and the youngest building from the late 19th century that is now the home to the Form Design Centre. You will also walk by the largest square "Stortorget", the City Hall building built by Jorgen Kock who also built a home for himself, Kockska huset next to the large square. The oldest building in Malmo is Sankt Petri Church from the early 14th century and it peeks out from behind the City Hall.

The tour can be combined with canal cruise of Malmø if you wish.

Lunch at Turning Torso, Malmö

Turning Torso is a high-rise building in Malmö, consisting of nine cubes twisting towards the waterfront. The Turning Torso houses top-quality apartments, offices and conference rooms and, at the time of completion (27 August 2005), was the second tallest residential tower in Europe

The Turning Torso is also very interesting to look at - the design was based on Santiago Calatrava's "Twisting Torso". Visitors to Malmö immediately notice the creative 90-degree twist in the entire building.

On the 53rd and 54th floors, there are private rooms that can be used for conferences, dinners, receptions, press conferences etc. The rooms have a magnificent view over Malmö on one side and Denmark on the other side.

BDP comment: Even though Malmø is only 45 min. drive from Copenhagen – you feel you are in a different country – and Turning Torso is really impressive.
